* Not all Health Care expenses are FSA-eligible, such as cosmetic procedures or products even if performed or dispensed by a doctor (e.g. Botox, teeth whitening, veneers, etc.), couples/family counseling, general health/wellness expenses (i.e., toothbrushes, non-prescription sunglasses, gym dues, etc.), and federally non-permissible products. Effective 1/1/20, non-prescription/over-the-counter medications were made eligible (not vitamins or supplements). Some expenses, such as medical equipment and some services, may be FSA-eligible with a physician's Letter of Medical Necessity. Visit <https://fsastore.com/CPAEligibility> for more info. on FSA-eligible products and services, including A-Z look-up tool.

 Overnight camp and school tuition are not FSA-eligible; day camp is eligible when utilized as childcare in order for the parent(s)/guardian(s) to be able to work; extra-curricular and enrichment programs/activities that aren't daycare/childcare-based are not eligible; monies paid to a provider who doesn't report childcare income on his/her taxes aren't eligible.
