CURRICULUM
• Advanced Placement (19)
• Honors
  Honors courses are offered in the departments of English, Math, Science, Social Studies, Foreign Language and Music.
• College Preparatory
  College Preparatory courses (A and B level) provide academic preparation at a level acceptable to any institution of higher learning, including those with exceptional standards. These courses are offered in every discipline and in grades nine through twelve.

The daily schedule consists of four class periods per day, eight blocks for two days, 85 minutes in length. All students are required to take seven courses with no study halls. Classes meet every other day on a two day cycle. The 8th block is used as a regular rotation block for all classes.
